

- egalitarianism: of abolitionists, 190, 367–68n179; agrarian, 329n102; in Christianity, 161, 188; collective identities and, 284; in early United States, 3, 23, 51–52; economic, 259–60; inclusive, 23; intellectual sources of, 50–53, 111–14, 137, 165–69, 334–35n34; of Jacksonians, 19, 68, 81–82, 102, 113, 248; in late nineteenth century, 244–45; legal, 154; in market economy, 47, 107, 112, 114–15, 121, 132–33, 137, 151–53, 294; moral individualism and, 287–88; negative views of, 244–45, 280; political myths and, 20, 280–84; populism and, 267; producers' rights and, 112, 114–15, 123; slaveholders and, 329n102; in twentieth and twenty-first centuries, 281–82, 284–85; for white men, 54, 79–80, 123, 128, 197, 260, 280, 389n83; women's rights and, 196–97
- elections: in colonial America, 42, 307n43; employers' pressures on workers, 89; nomination procedures, 99, 100–102; participation rates, 3; secret ballots, 306n42; vote scattering in, 193, 369n193. See also presidential elections; voting rights
- elites: anti-elitism of Democrats, 57–60, 64, 81–82, 84–89, 94–95; corruption of, 51, 87, 88, 93, 324n29; as Democrats, 118–19; economic exploitation by, 85, 115, 123, 139, 147, 183, 264; economic power of, 55, 59; educated, 50, 81, 94, 95, 98; financial, 54–55, 58–60, 117–18, 154–55; foundational myths deployed by, 13, 15, 274–75, 298n12; in Gilded Age, 261; landowners, 36, 49–51; patrician independence, 39, 41–42, 44, 49–51, 53, 81; political, 4, 52, 81, 94, 96, 97, 298n12; political power of, 84–89, 93–94, 154–55; populism embraced by, 119; Protestant clergy as, 98; relations with government, 256–57; resistance to power of, 4, 54–55, 87–89, 92–93; rights violated by, 109–10; self-interest of, 87, 92–93, 157, 274–75, 276–77; suspicion of wealthy, 53, 114, 115; wealthy, 87, 118–19, 139, 214–15, 221, 243, 261; Whig view of, 214. See also aristocracy; banks; class hierarchy; manufacturers; social and economic mobility; Southern planters
- Emancipator*, 179, 191
- Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 186, 194, 239
- empathy: abolitionists' appeals to, 161, 187, 188, 189–90, 194, 283, 367–68n179; radical, 367n174
- England. See Britain
- Enlightenment, 114, 115, 125, 139. See also Scottish Enlightenment
- enslaved persons. See slavery
- epistemic individualism, 288, 291, 293–94
- Erickson, Charlotte, 304n5
- etiquette manuals, 235, 260
- Europe: class hierarchies in, 19, 20–21, 36, 113, 115, 261, 382n174; collectivist orientation in, 30–31; contrasts with America, 6, 14–15, 17, 19–21, 23, 30–31, 83–84, 163, 212, 214–15, 261; laborers in, 35, 113, 220, 225; socialists in, 121, 138, 265, 303n70
- evangelical Protestantism. See Protestantism, evangelical
- Everett, Edward, 211, 212, 217
- exceptionalism. See American exceptionalism
- factions, 92–93, 99, 101, 394n43
- families: gender-based division of labor in, 130–31; of slaves, 176, 182, 188, 189, 362n101. See also marriage; patriarchy
- family law, 75–77
- farmers: debts of, 58–59, 243; immigrants as, 16, 18; industriousness of, 48–49, 309n82; as Jacksonian Democrats, 68; Jefferson on, 35, 45–46, 48, 51, 308n69; market economy and, 3, 25, 45–46, 48, 68, 211; Native Americans as, 124, 339n101; political virtues of, 51, 52–53, 89–90; populism and, 259, 260; producers' rights

- of, 123, 126–27; proximity to nature of, 90; subsistence, 63, 120; value of labor of, 120–21. See also agrarian republic; agriculture
- farmers, personal independence of:
American exceptionalism and, 36;
civic virtue and, 90; contrasted to city residents and wage labor, 89–90, 281; effects of economic downturns, 243, 281; Jefferson on, 35; land ownership and, 16, 25, 44–45, 46–47, 48, 61–63, 302n55; self-made man myth and, 200, 215; settlement of West and, 103, 199–200; slaveholders, 97; Whig view of, 216–17. See also independent proprietor myth; plebian independence
- federal government: economic intervention by, 244, 260, 278; expanded power of, 194–95, 244; land policies in West, 61, 71, 258; limiting power of, 93–95, 136–38; officeholder qualifications, 95; rights protection role of, 187, 194–95, 244, 254, 289, 292, 383n4; welfare programs of, 273, 282, 394n41. See also Congress; Constitution, U.S.
- Federalist Papers*, 7, 92, 101, 134, 394n43
- Federalists: conservatism of, 166, 205;
Jefferson's criticism of, 51; view of human nature, 92, 94, 134; view of society, 137, 289; on virtues, 66
- feminists, 6, 78, 79, 130–31, 238–39, 268, 269, 320n125
- Finney, Charles Grandison, 229–30, 359n59, 382n184
- Fischer, David Hackett, 137
- Follen, Charles, 191, 368n184
- Foner, Eric, 244, 251, 365–66n150, 388n74, 389n82
- Ford, Lacy, Jr., 317–18n83
- Forten, James, Jr., 177, 178
- foundational myths, 12–20, 392n14. See also independent proprietor myth; political myths; rights-bearer myth; self-made man myth
- founders. See framers
- framers: abolitionists and, 164, 187;
intellectual influences on, 36–37, 50–51, 53, 133–35, 137; Jacksonian Democrats' disagreements with, 34, 81–82, 83, 92–96, 99; national unity valued by, 14; on political elites, 81, 93–94; slaveholders, 164, 356n24; on virtues, 66–67. See also Federalists
- France: Enlightenment, 114, 115; Paris Commune, 265, 279; Physiocrats, 334–35n34, 344n16. See also French Revolution
- Franklin, Benjamin: Autobiography, 66–67, 317n72; on self-made man myth, 199, 262
- free Blacks. See African Americans
- freedom: American exceptionalism and, 5, 14–19, 24–25, 33–34, 105–7, 162–65, 214–18, 261–64, 279–80; in American political culture, 1, 2, 4, 14–15, 17, 18–19, 24–25, 271, 272, 274–75, 299n23; of British subjects, 14, 24–25, 300n41; effective, 252, 385n37; from government regulation, 6, 150, 274–75; in independent proprietor myth, 16, 20, 33, 51, 247–49, 280–81; liberal view of, 291, 293–94; meanings of, 16–19, 24–25, 33–34, 36–38, 102, 105–6, 148–51, 175–76, 216–18, 245–49; in neoclassical republicanism, 36–38; privatization of, 19, 25, 299n23, 26; in rights-bearer myth, 17, 20, 105–6; in self-made man myth, 18, 20, 216–18, 234–35, 236; of speech, 179–80; Whig view of, 210, 217–18, 376n70. See also economic freedom; religious freedom; rights
- freeholders, 42, 44, 47, 54, 60, 62, 311n1, 324n29
- free labor, 145, 183–84, 216, 246, 281, 349n80
- free market. See laissez-faire economic policies; market economy
- Free Soil Movement, 128–29, 174

- free trade policies: arguments for, 133, 143–44, 145; effects of, 350n98; providential vision of, 144, 348nn70–71; seen as natural, 143–44, 146, 148, 348n70, 350n98; supporters of, 45, 94, 121, 122; Whig view of, 224–26. See also market economy; tariffs
- French Revolution, 83, 84, 138, 166, 206, 279
- fugitive slave laws, 184, 191, 363n114
- fugitive slaves, 127, 163, 188, 189, 191, 238, 278
- Fuller, Margaret, 238–39
- Galbraith, John, 117, 118
- Garfield, James, 261–62
- Garrison, William Lloyd, 170, 187, 193, 357n36, 359n60, 360n70
- Garrisonians, 172, 192, 193, 368n191
- gender: citizenship and, 76; independent proprietor myth and, 75–79; rights-bearer myth and, 110, 129–31, 196–97, 253–54; separate spheres, 77–78, 130, 321n132; societal expectations of, 238–39. See also feminists; men; patriarchy; women
- George, Henry, Progress and Poverty, 258, 388nn70, 73
- Gilded Age, 244–45, 249–50, 254–67
- Girard, Stephen, 214–15
- Glickman, Lawrence B., 384n13, 392n16
- Godkin, E. L., 249, 255
- Goodell, William, 170, 359n64
- Gordon, Thomas, 39, 156–57. See also Country ideology
- Gouge, William, 88, 117–18
- government: debt of, 51, 52; natural laws and, 95–96, 135–36; role in market economy, 204, 223, 227–28, 244, 254–55, 257–58, 259, 276–77; seen as threat to freedom, 292. See also democracy; federal government; state constitutions
- government regulation: arguments against, 151–53, 159, 254, 348n74, 350n99; of banks, 146, 226; economic, 146–47, 148, 150–51, 159, 226, 227–28, 275–76; freedom limited by, 6, 150, 275; of monopolies, 259, 322n4; support for, 294, 322n4, 349n92
- greed, 173, 181–84, 226–27. See also self-interest
- Greeley, Horace, 216–17, 226, 263
- Grimke, Angelina, 79, 174–75, 181
- Grimke, Sarah, 78, 79, 131, 342n150
- group identity, 13, 73–74, 284, 293, 396–97n20
- gun rights, 2, 268, 282
- Hamilton, Alexander, 51, 93, 134, 343n6
- Harrington, James, 41–42, 157, 304–5n12, 305n14
- Harris, Cheryl I., 366n164
- Hartz, Louis, 196, 370n211, 391n6
- Hatch, Nathan O., 302n65, 358n50
- Hayek, Friedrich, 392n21, 393n24
- Hayne, Robert, 144
- Hofstadter, Richard, 290, 351n123
- Homestead Act, 63, 244, 267
- Howe, Daniel Walker, 67, 86, 206–7, 218, 227, 233, 288, 371n13, 372n23, 373n34
- human nature, 86, 133–38, 141, 204, 230, 347nn57, 59, 348n65
- human rights, 107, 161, 283, 292, 354n7. See also natural rights; rights
- Hume, David, 43, 134
- Hunt, Benjamin Faneuil, 63, 156
- Huston, James L., 159, 333n22
- Hutcheson, Francis, 134
- immigrants: British, 24–25; Catholic, 21, 231; Chinese, 246, 259, 264; European, 71, 73–74, 243, 317n82; as independent farmers, 16, 18; Irish, 21, 24, 25; land ownership by, 46–47; motives of, 16–17, 19, 23; seen as threat, 273; self-made man myth and, 18, 199; social mobility of, 20–21; white, 22–23, 71, 72, 73–74, 317n82
- independence: democracy and, 16, 81–82, 91–92, 281; of landowners, 38–39, 41–42,

- 44–47, 49–51, 71–72; in neoclassical republicanism, 34, 38–44; patrician, 39, 41–42, 44, 49–51, 53, 81; personal, 1–2, 33, 34, 35–36; plebian, 39–40, 42, 44, 45–49, 51, 52–53, 54; threats to, 57–62; of voters, 99–102; Whig view of, 204–5, 216; of white men, 47, 54, 68–69, 70–71, 74, 103–4, 305–6n27. See also farmers, personal independence of
- Independence Day (July Fourth), 14, 160, 194, 354n2
- independent proprietor myth: agrarian version of, 16, 45–47, 52; decline of, 245–49; description of, 16, 33–34, 102–4; egalitarian view of, 102, 103, 280–82; freedom in, 16, 20, 33, 51, 280–81; gender and, 75–79; in industrial economy, 247, 281–82; in Jacksonian Era, 54–56, 57–60, 68, 79–80, 102–4, 199–200; in late nineteenth century, 246–51; messages of, 1–2, 5, 33; persistence of, 268–70, 282; political implications of, 34, 51, 54–55, 81–82, 88–90, 96, 102, 281; political use of, 18, 33–34, 68, 96, 103; property rights and, 18, 315n49; race and, 33–34, 68–75, 79–80, 103; slaveholders and, 97; sources of, 34; Whig Party and, 99–100, 204–5, 216–17. See also independence
- indigenous peoples. See Native American land expropriation; Native Americans
- individualism: of abolitionists, 192–94; American exceptionalism and, 19–20, 279–80, 394n34; contrast to collectivism, 9–10, 30–31, 269, 279, 287; countercultural, 239; definition of, 20, 290; economic, 290, 293–94, 396n15; in eighteenth century, 7–8, 289, 291; epistemic, 288, 291, 293–94; in Europe, 30–31, 138; inclusive and exclusive, 20–24, 103; inequality and, 272–80; liberalism and, 291–94; in market economy, 132, 290; meanings of, 287–91, 395n1; moral, 287–88, 290–91, 292, 294, 395n4; negative effects of, 283–84; political, 289, 290–91, 292, 294; political uses of, 20, 271; Protestant views of, 28–30, 98, 192, 194, 204, 288, 299–300n31; racial hierarchy and, 272–74; in rights-bearer myth, 110; social, 289–90, 291, 293, 294, 395–96n9; in twenty-first century, 271–72, 274, 285; utopianism and, 271, 275–79; Whigs and, 200–201, 204, 210, 214–22, 234–36; white supremacy and, 22; of women, 77. See also political myths
- industrialization: in Britain, 48, 74, 225; independent proprietor myth and, 247, 281–82; social impact of, 133, 243–44, 246; of textile production, 74, 130, 211; workers and, 60–61, 84, 89, 128, 129, 130, 224, 246, 281–82. See also manufacturers
- inequality: acceptance of, 245, 351n119; anxieties about, 58–64; causes of, 151–53; effects of, 272; in Gilded Age, 244–45, 261; justifications of, 210–22, 244–45, 254–57, 261–64; in law, 154–55, 156–57; in natural society, 143; political myths and, 244, 272–80; racial wealth gaps, 392n13. See also class hierarchy; egalitarianism; patriarchy; racial hierarchy; social and economic mobility; white supremacy
- Jackson, Andrew: advisors of, 85; background and career of, 56, 96–97, 302n57, 312nn7, 12; on elites, 87, 140; Farewell Address of, 88, 91–92, 123; independence of, 96; on individual rights, 88; on labor theory of property, 123; on members of public, 88, 91–92; political image of, 56, 82, 96, 326n64; presidency of, 33–34, 56–57, 71, 100, 325n44; presidential campaign of (1824), 56, 326n64; on qualifications of officeholders, 95; Second Bank of the United States charter vetoed by, 59, 155, 325n44; as slaveholder, 96–97, 119; supporters of, 57
- Jacksonian Democrats. See Democrats, Jacksonian
- Jay, John, 134

- Jefferson, Thomas: on agrarian myth and farmers, 35, 45–46, 48, 51, 81, 275, 308n69; on economic dependence, 35; on education, 50, 94; on elites, 50, 51, 94, 96; on European mobs, 84; evangelical Protestants and, 166, 168, 356n34; on Federalists, 343n4; intellectual influences on, 86, 133–34, 135, 344n16; on land ownership, 65, 71, 125; on Native Americans, 125; on natural rights, 136, 168, 179; Notes on the State of Virginia, 356n24; on patrician order, 50; on power and corruption, 93; presidential election of (1800), 3, 52; on producers' rights, 114; on slavery, 164, 356n24; Virginia constitution draft, 46
- Jeffersonian Republicans. See Republicans, Jeffersonian
- Johnson, Curtis, 234
- Johnson, Lyndon, 269
- justice: economic, 119–22; in meritocracy, 17. See also criminal justice system
- Kelley, Mary, 321n132
- Kendall, Amos, 85, 89, 117, 121, 122
- Kerber, Linda K., 76
- Knights of Labor, 246, 267
- Kraditor, Aileen S., 192
- Kramnick, Isaac, 112
- labor: positive value of, 111–13; productivity of, 111–12, 332n11. See also free labor; laborers; labor theory of property; producers' rights; wage labor
- labor activists, 120, 121, 152, 220–21, 350–51n11. See also labor unions
- laborers: capital owned by, 374n40; collective organizing of, 121; economic dependence of, 35–36, 49, 60–61, 89, 246, 249, 275, 282; effects of industrialization on, 60–61, 84, 89; in Europe, 35, 113, 220, 225; free Blacks, 249, 257; independence of, 40, 62–63, 183–84, 247–49, 257, 384n14; as Jacksonian Democrats, 68; in manufactories, 60–61, 314n33; rights of, 257; self-improvement of, 219–22, 377nn85, 90; women, 129–31, 197. See also producers' rights; wage labor
- labor theory of property: gender and, 129–31; justice and, 119–22; land ownership and, 258; Locke on, 110–11, 258; overview of, 110–15; Physiocrats' support of, 334–35n34; race and, 124–29; Whig Party and, 119, 204–5. See also producers' rights
- labor theory of value, 112, 122, 333n18, 336n49
- labor unions, 220–21, 226, 246, 249, 257, 258, 352n126, 377n90
- laissez-faire economic policies: criticism of, 228, 257–59; individualism and, 248, 276–77, 290; inequality and, 254; supporters of, 146, 147, 226, 247, 249, 255, 256, 263–64. See also capitalism; market economy; natural economy
- land: availability in America, 18, 25, 27, 47, 378n110; public, 61, 258; tenants of, 45, 62, 89, 258. See also Native American land expropriation; property rights; Western lands
- land ownership: in colonial America, 65; in early United States, 44–45, 65–66; economic mobility and, 18; by elites, 36, 49–51; by free Blacks, 246–47, 267, 281; freedom and, 65–66, 71; independence and, 16, 38–39, 41–42, 44–47, 49–51, 62–63, 71–72; inherited, 64–65, 316n61; legal restrictions on, 65; by Native Americans, 250; in neoclassical republicanism, 64–65; preemption policies, 61–63; radical view of, 258; by speculators, 55, 62, 65, 109, 116–17, 118–19. See also property rights
- Lasch, Christopher, 389n91
- law: equality under, 155–57, 177, 251–54; impartiality and, 154–57. See also criminal justice system; natural laws; rights
- Leggett, William, 87, 145–46, 151, 153, 351n123

- Leigh, Benjamin Watkins, 49–50, 310n90
- Leland, John, 168, 358n51
- Levellers, 114, 129, 334n27, 334n29
- liberalism: core beliefs of, 43–44, 196, 291, 292; definition of, 291; eclipse of republicanism by, 43–44, 64–68, 138, 157–59, 245–49, 384n14; economic policies of, 294; individualism and, 291–94; use of term, 7, 291, 396n15; utopian assumptions of, 197–98; views of freedom and rights, 171, 291, 292, 293–94, 396n17; views of society, 157–58, 293, 396n20
- Liberator*, 179, 185, 186, 188, 354n7
- libertarianism, 2, 17, 393n24
- liberty. See freedom
- Liberty Party, 172
- Lincoln, Abraham, 193, 209, 218, 270, 373n34, 376n78, 377n85
- Lindblom, Charles, 342n2
- List, Friedrich, 148, 379n18
- Locke, John: on happiness, 344n13; on individualism, 291; influence of, 107, 165–66, 167–69, 173, 196, 340n105, 344n13; Letter Concerning Toleration, 168; on natural rights, 115, 165–66, 167–69, 173, 251, 258; on producers' rights, 110–11, 116, 124–25, 332n6; Second Treatise of Government, 110–11, 124–25, 332nn5–6, 333n13; on self-ownership, 175–76; on society, 293
- Louisiana Purchase, 46, 343n6
- Lovejoy, Elijah, 179–80
- Luther, Martin, 173, 359n60
- luxury: corruption and, 42, 47, 67, 156; criticism of, 66, 115, 173, 231, 236; greed for, 181. See also elites
- Lynn, Joshua A., 197
- MacGilvray, Eric, 68, 393n24
- MacIntyre, Alasdair, 12
- MacPherson, C. B., 64
- Madison, James, 51, 56, 81, 92, 93, 101, 178, 358n53
- Magruder, Alan, 46, 48, 308n66
- Malthus, Thomas, 142, 153–54, 229, 380n137
- Manifest Destiny, 72, 103
- Manning, William, 114, 115, 334n32
- manufacturers: power of, 55, 89; protective tariffs and, 109, 117, 121–22, 256; relations with government, 256–57; self-interest of, 226, 256–57; societal benefits seen by Whigs, 211; wealthy, 243. See also industrialization
- market economy: acceptance of, 63–64; agricultural, 3, 25, 45–46, 48, 68, 211; benefits of, 142–43, 149, 151–52, 156–57; comparison to democracy, 327n75; constraints in, 148–49; consumer spending in, 3, 218, 376n83; contrast with other models, 133, 143; development in United States, 3, 7, 25–26; distinction from capitalism, 315n54; egalitarianism in, 47, 107, 112, 114–15, 121, 132–33, 137, 151–53, 294; freedom in, 4, 6, 26, 68, 132, 147–51, 198, 223, 278, 393n24; government regulation of, 150–51, 159, 226, 227–28, 275–76; government role in, 204, 223, 227–28, 244, 254–55, 257–58, 259, 276–77; impartiality of, 154, 156; individualism in, 132, 290; Jefferson on, 45–46; labor in, 64, 121; meaning of, 342–43n2; as natural, 6, 132–33, 139–40, 144–46, 149, 392n18; natural religion and, 142–46, 147, 149, 151; optimism in, 4, 26, 278; persistent support for, 159, 268, 269; producers' rights in, 121, 122, 131, 257; racial discrimination in, 253; republicanism and, 154, 157–59; rights-bearer myth and, 106–7, 109–10, 121, 132–33, 150; self-interest in, 45–46, 226–27; simple market society, 64, 133; slavery as part of, 181–84, 365n143; suspicion of, 43, 45–46, 48–49, 350–51n111; utopianism and, 6, 131–32, 147–51, 255, 275–77; Whig view of, 222–23, 226–28. See also capitalism; free trade policies; laissez-faire economic policies

- marriage: respectability in, 390n95; same-sex, 269; of slaves, 176, 182; women's labor in, 129–30; women's rights in, 75–79, 254, 272. See also families
- Martineau, Harriet, 28
- masculinity, 5, 39, 75, 272–73, 305–6n27.
See also men
- McCormack, Matthew, 39, 305n27
- McGuffey's Readers, 263, 389n94
- McLoughlin, William G., 98, 230, 288
- McWilliams, Susan, 394n47
- mechanics. See artisans
- men: heads of households, 39, 130; masculinity, 5, 39, 75, 272–73; societal expectations of, 239; voting rights of, 39–40, 42, 251. See also gender; independent proprietor myth; patriarchy; self-made man myth; white men
- merchants, 45–46, 47, 114, 115, 211. See also market economy
- meritocracy: in conservatism, 214; definition of, 299n26; egalitarian results of, 23, 123; fairness of, 17; individualism and, 1, 20, 110, 123, 139, 143–44, 214–22, 260–67, 290, 291; labor theory of property and, 123; market economy and, 133; utopian visions of, 275, 277–78; Whig view of, 210, 219; for white men, 27, 123, 277. See also self-made man myth; social and economic mobility
- Merriam, Charles, 254
- Meyer, D. H., 141
- Meyers, Marvin, 158
- middle class, 21, 25, 218, 235, 262, 264
- Mill, John Stuart, 138, 154
- millennial Protestantism, 230–32, 233–34, 265
- Miller, Perry, 232
- minstrel shows, 73, 366n159
- Missouri Compromise, 21, 191, 373n30
- mobility, geographic, 26–27, 103, 236–37, 316n65. See also immigrants; social and economic mobility; Western lands
- monopolies: opposition to, 58–59, 117, 122, 152–53, 157, 244, 259; regulation of, 259, 322n4; use of term, 155–57, 352–53n138
- Monroe, James, 56
- moral individualism, 287–88, 290–91, 292, 294, 395n4
- Morgan, Edmund, 40, 51, 310n100
- Morris, Thomas, 128
- Morton, Marcus, 123, 146–47
- Murrin, John M., 44, 279
- myths. See independent proprietor myth; political myths; rights-bearer myth; self-made man myth
- nationalism: religious, 133; of Whigs, 298n12.
See also American exceptionalism
- national myths, 9. See also foundational myths
- National Woman Suffrage Association, 252, 253
- Native American land expropriation: benefits for white society, 25–26, 72–73; forced removals, 21, 71, 74, 126, 250–51; justifications of, 47, 55, 70, 110, 124–26, 318n92; in late nineteenth century, 249–51, 264; resistance to, 24, 72–73, 126, 250. See also settler colonialism
- Native Americans: assimilation policies and, 249–50; Cherokees, 24, 71, 73, 126, 319n104; extermination of, 4, 6, 21, 55, 70, 124, 125, 251; farming by, 124, 339n101; independence of, 69, 250; Jacksonian policies and, 71, 124, 125; leaders of, 72–73, 126; racist stereotypes of, 69–70, 73, 124, 125–26; Seminoles, 56, 70, 71; treatment of, 272
- natural aristocracy, 42, 50, 51, 94, 95
- natural economy, 139–40, 147, 248, 255–56, 264, 275–77, 392n21
- natural laws: economic, 132–33, 135, 139–40, 141, 143–46, 147–48, 149–50, 151; enacted by government, 95–96, 135–36; moral, 141, 145; physical, 135–36, 141, 149, 150, 208, 343n3, 387n58
- natural religion, 140–46, 147, 149, 151, 252, 346n50
- natural rights: abolitionists on, 23, 160, 161, 166, 169–72, 174–80, 209, 252–53, 373n30; biblical citations on, 359n64; of

- conscience, 167–69, 176, 179; Democrats’ defense of, 106–7, 109–10, 115–16; equality of, 21, 23; Jefferson on, 136, 168, 179; Lincoln on, 209; Locke on, 115, 165–66, 167–69, 173, 251, 258; natural economy and, 145–46; Paine on, 136–37; Protestant views of, 165–71, 173, 174; of self-ownership, 175–76, 177, 178–79; of slaves, 180, 362n97; Sumner on, 387n54; Whig view of, 116, 208–9, 210, 373n28; of whites, 107, 179–80. See also producers’ rights
- natural society, 133–38, 140, 143, 197–98, 344n17
- nature: competition in, 255; contrast to artificial, 6, 90, 132–33, 139–40, 143–49, 151–52, 248, 255; conversion into property, 110–11; diverse conceptions of, 139, 346n40; farmers and, 90; as harmonious system, 133, 139, 141, 144–45, 153, 343n3
- neoclassical republicanism: in Britain, 37–40, 50–51, 64–65, 137, 303n2, 304–5n12; civic virtue in, 37–38, 64, 65, 66; independence in, 34, 38–44; land ownership in, 64–65; masculinity in, 39, 75; principles of, 37, 44; as source of political myths, 10, 34; view of society, 137
- New Deal, 260, 268, 269
- Newton, Isaac, 133, 134, 135, 136, 208, 343n3
- New York Evening Post*, 59, 85–86, 118, 122, 145
- Noll, Mark A., 29–30
- North American Review*, 231–32
- Northampton Democrat*, 117, 129, 384n18
- North Star*, 182, 186
- Novak, William J., 383n4
- Obama, Barack, 269–70
- Ohio Constitution, 105
- Old World. See Europe
- Oregon Territory, 70, 72
- O’Sullivan, John, 136, 146, 150
- Owen, Robert Dale, 76–77, 131, 321n30
- Paine, Thomas: Age of Reason, 166; on elites, 115; intellectual influences on, 133–34, 135; on limited government, 136–37; on natural laws, 135, 139; on natural rights, 136–37; Rights of Man, 114, 135, 136–37, 139, 335n36
- Parker, Theodore, 160–61, 177, 183
- patriarchy: criticism of, 110, 238; in families, 55, 75–76; rights and, 75–76, 107, 110; women’s status in, 39, 75–79, 252, 272–73, 395n6
- patrician independence, 39, 41–42, 44, 49–51, 53, 81
- Paul, St., 166, 173, 188
- Paulding, James K.: The Backwoodsman, 200, 370n6; Slavery in the United States, 127, 356n32
- Pennsylvania Freeman*, 181, 192, 193
- Perry, Arthur Latham, 255, 386n51
- Pessen, Edward, 152
- Peterson, Merrill D., 47
- Phelps, Amos, 169–70, 182
- Philanthropist*, 179–80, 364n126
- Physiocrats, 334–35n34, 344n16
- Pierson, George, 27
- plantations. See slavery; Southern planters
- plebian independence, 39–40, 42, 44, 45–49, 51, 52–53, 54
- Pocock, J. G. A., 38, 65
- Polanyi, Karl, 276
- political economy, 26, 111–12, 136, 141–42, 145, 153, 255, 334–35n34. See also Scottish Enlightenment; Smith, Adam
- political individualism, 289, 290–91, 292, 294
- political myths: definition of, 12; development in Jacksonian Era, 2–6, 8; in early United States, 14–16; egalitarianism and, 280–84; enabling conditions of, 24–30; foundational, 12–20, 392n14; functions of, 12, 13–14, 15–16, 24, 279; future of, 285; inclusionary and exclusionary uses of, 5–6, 7, 20–24; influence of, 1–2, 4–6, 8, 9, 10, 13–14, 18–20; intellectual contexts of, 10, 14–15, 107; relationship to inequality, 244, 272–80; resilience of, 244, 268–70; utopian visions and, 6, 104, 271. See also independent proprietor myth; rights-bearer myth; self-made man myth

- political parties: candidate nomination procedures, 99, 100–102; rise of, 3, 57, 101; Second Party System, 57, 209; suspicion of, 42, 99; two-party system, 119, 337n72. See also elections; factions; and individual parties
- politics: deferential, 51, 310n100; grassroots activism in, 192–94, 284; Jacksonian views of, 81–82, 95–96, 97–98, 104; reduced stakes of, 283; self-interest in, 394n43; simplicity of, 95–96, 97–98; special privileges in, 154–55, 157; suspicion of, 82, 138
- popular sovereignty, 88, 99, 101, 372n24
- population growth: Malthus on, 153–54; in United States, 26, 71, 72, 243
- populism: of African Americans, 259; agrarian, 259, 260; authoritarian, 294; economic policies of, 259–60; egalitarianism and, 267; on government role in economy, 257–58; independent proprietor myth and, 54–56, 57–58, 246, 259; Jacksonian, 57–58, 100; leaders of, 119, 260; rights language used by, 259–60; right-wing, 269; white supremacy and, 4, 259, 260
- Postel, Charles, 388n76
- post-millennial Protestantism, 231–32, 233–34
- Potter, Alonzo, 211–12, 215, 216, 221, 226
- poverty: dependence and, 42, 273, 282, 394n41; government policies perpetuating, 278; Malthus on, 153–54; persistent, 272, 277–78; urban, 243; Whig view of, 213–14, 219, 220, 222, 378n107; whites in, 74, 243, 273
- Prentiss, Sargent Smith, 220, 378n99
- presidential elections: of 1800, 3, 52; of 1824, 56, 101; of 1828, 56–57; of 1836, 99; of 1840, 62–63; of 1860, 193; electors, 57. See also elections
- Price, Richard, 44, 157
- Priestly, Joseph, 157
- producers' rights: debates on, 119–22; free market and, 121, 122, 131, 257; Jacksonian narrative of, 115–18, 121–23, 257; labor theory of property and, 110–15, 126–27; Locke on, 110–11, 116, 124–25, 332n6; of small producers, 112, 114, 259; violations of, 109–10, 115, 116–18, 120, 121–22, 128–29, 334n25; of white men, 110, 123–31; of women, 129–31
- Progressive movement, 8, 249, 254, 268, 281–82
- property. See labor theory of property; land
- property rights: independence and, 18, 64–65, 68, 104, 315n49; Lockean view of, 258; in market economy, 68; in republics, 65; of slaveholders, 197; violated by elites, 109–10, 115–19; Whig view of, 373n28; of women, 75, 76–77, 79, 130, 254, 321n130. See also labor theory of property; land ownership; producers' rights
- Protestantism: abolitionism and, 161, 162, 166–71, 173–74, 188–92, 194, 234, 361n82; anti-authoritarian, 165–66; anti-materialist, 382n184; Baptists, 167, 168, 188–89, 357nn40, 42; church-state relations and, 166–69, 173, 358nn53–54, 361n80; dissenters, 167, 288, 357n43; divisions among, 98, 167, 357n43; free-market ideas and, 198, 256; individualism of, 29–30, 98, 192, 194, 204, 288, 299–300n31; Lutherans, 167; Methodists, 98, 167, 168, 357n42; on natural rights, 165–71, 173, 174; political invocation of, 21–22, 299–300n31; post-millennial, 230–31; pre-millennial, 380n145; racial discrimination in, 165, 185, 190–91, 357n35; Reformation, 161, 174, 288, 361n82; Scottish influences on, 140–41; on sin and repentance, 7, 8, 173, 192, 204, 229–30, 263; slavery support in, 165; social gospel, 8, 257, 387n60; as source of political myths, 10, 107; view of Catholicism, 231, 299–300n31; virtues in, 48–49, 66–68, 156, 157, 262, 263; work ethic, 48–49, 112. See also Calvinist theology; Christianity; Puritans
- Protestantism, evangelical: churches, 28–29; egalitarianism in, 97–98; growth of,

- 166–67; millennial and post-millennial, 230–32, 233–34, 265; on natural rights, 168–69; optimism of, 230–31, 233; progressive views in, 233; Second Great Awakening, 28, 29, 174, 201, 204, 229, 233; self-made man myth and, 229–30, 235–36; slavery opponents and supporters in, 173, 234, 356n34, 359n59; in twentieth and twenty-first centuries, 269, 394n45
- public: democratic, 89, 96; independence of, 83, 91; jealousy of liberties, 88, 92
- public opinion, 2, 91, 185, 194
- Puritans, 25, 112, 125, 136, 357n43. See also Calvinist theology; Levellers
- Quakers, 167, 171, 181, 360n66, 362n97
- Quarterly Anti-Slavery Magazine*, 170, 355n13
- race: independent proprietor myth and, 33–34, 68–75, 79–80, 103; labor theory of property and, 124–29; rights-bearer myth and, 22, 110, 123–29, 196, 252–53; self-made man myth and, 22, 199, 262, 264–67. See also African Americans; Native Americans; slavery; whites
- racial discrimination: abolitionists on, 180–81, 185–87; economic opportunity and, 129, 177–78, 253; in education, 253; legacies of, 272–74; in northern states, 172, 190–91; in Protestant churches, 165, 185, 190–91, 357n35
- racial hierarchy: as caste system, 5, 163, 181, 186; challenges to, 6, 185–95, 244, 266–67; free labor ideal and, 246; independent proprietor myth and, 33–34, 68–75, 79–80, 103; persistence of, 185–86, 272; scientific racism, 70, 125; wealth disparities, 392n13; white identity and, 22–23, 185–86, 272–74. See also white supremacy
- racial injustice: in criminal justice system, 274; Jim Crow laws, 254; political myths and, 272–74; prejudice and racism, 185–86, 245, 253, 268–69, 273, 366n160; sources of, 180–84, 185–86; structural, 274; struggle against, 251, 253, 268; violent, 23, 74, 264; white complicity with, 190–91; white denial of, 274. See also slavery; white supremacy
- racial prejudice. See racial discrimination
- racism. See racial discrimination; racial hierarchy; racial injustice; white supremacy
- Rana, Aziz, 72
- Rantoul, Robert, Jr., 63, 67, 83, 116, 147, 152, 349n90
- Rawls, John, 294
- Reagan, Ronald, 269
- Reconstruction era, 194–95, 244, 251, 254, 264, 267, 281, 383n4
- Reflector and Watchman*, 163, 361n82
- religion: church-state separation, 106, 146, 326n60, 361n80; natural, 140–46, 147, 149, 151, 252, 346n50; voluntarism in, 25, 30, 137, 229–30, 234. See also Christianity; Protestantism
- religious freedom, 16–17, 166–69, 176, 234, 291, 358n53
- religious nationalism, 133
- religious toleration, 107, 167–68, 293
- republicanism: classical, 36–37, 83, 94, 304–5n12; market economy and, 154, 157–59; privatization of, 64–68; transition to liberalism, 43–44, 64–68, 138, 157–59, 245–49, 384n14; virtues and, 66–68. See also neoclassical republicanism
- Republican Party: economic policies of, 257; free labor principle of, 246; independent proprietor myth and, 247, 249; in mid-nineteenth century, 63, 174, 209, 237, 245–46; racial attitudes in, 265; self-made man myth and, 247; supporters of, 174, 245–46. See also Lincoln, Abraham
- Republicans, Jeffersonian, 56, 57, 93–94
- Ricardo, David, 142, 153, 380n137
- Ridge, John, 73, 319n104

- rights: enforcing, 251–52, 283; expansion of, 177, 252–53; to free speech, 179–80; government protection of, 194–95, 244, 289, 292, 383n4; individual, 1, 87, 88, 105–6, 187; of laborers, 257; of marriage and family, 176; Reconstruction amendments and, 194, 244, 251, 254, 383n4; of slaves, 110, 128–29, 176–77; of women, 21, 75–77, 177, 196–97, 239, 251, 252, 272. See also civil rights; human rights; natural rights; producers' rights; property rights; religious freedom; voting rights
- rights-bearer myth: description of, 16–17, 105–7, 195–96; egalitarianism and, 196, 282–84; exclusive to white men, 107, 110, 292, 396n17; freedom in, 17, 20, 106; free-market ideas and, 132–33; gender and, 110, 129–31, 196–97, 253–54; inclusive views of, 292, 396n17; individualistic assumptions of, 110; in late nineteenth century, 251–60; market economy and, 106–7, 109–10, 121, 132–33, 150; messages of, 1, 5, 106, 109–10; persistence of, 268–70; political use of, 18, 106, 109–10, 196–97; race and, 22, 110, 123–29, 196, 252–53; self-made man myth and, 18, 254; slavery issue and, 5–6, 107, 129, 160, 282–83; sources of, 107, 110–15; in twentieth and twenty-first centuries, 283; use by abolitionists, 160–61
- Rodgers, Daniel T., 147, 269, 331–32n2, 386n52
- Roediger, David R., 74
- Roman Catholicism, 21, 231, 299–300n31. See also Christianity
- Roman republic, 83, 177, 324n29, 355n15
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 260, 294
- Rossiter, Clinton, 264, 289, 390n100
- Roth, Randolph, 119
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 331n130
- Scottish Enlightenment, 10, 107, 111–12, 133–36, 140–41, 201. See also political economy
- Second Bank of the United States, 55, 59–60, 89, 139, 151, 155, 227, 259, 313n20
- Second Great Awakening, 28, 29, 174, 201, 204, 229, 233
- Sedgwick, Theodore, Jr., 128, 347n59, 352–53n138
- self-interest: changing views of, 67, 158, 353n150; economic, 45–46, 226–27, 290; of elites, 87, 92–93, 157, 274–75, 276–77; enlightened, 67, 157, 236, 317n76; freedom and, 44, 158; of independent men, 91–92; Madison on, 92; relationship to virtue, 66–67, 157–58; Whig view of, 226–27
- self-made man myth: American exceptionalism and, 261; in autobiographies, 200, 218; description of, 17–18, 199–201, 236–39; in eighteenth century, 199, 200; evangelical Protestantism and, 229–30, 235–36; freedom in, 18, 20, 216–18, 234–35, 236; immigrants and, 18, 199; independence in, 216, 238; in late nineteenth century, 247, 254, 260–67; legacy of, 236; messages of, 1, 5, 200; persistence of, 268–70; personal responsibility in, 219–22, 234–35, 278, 377n96; political use of, 18, 200–201; in popular culture, 260, 262–63; Protestant virtues and, 219, 235, 262; race and, 22, 199, 262, 264–67; rights-bearer myth and, 18, 254; subversive interpretations of, 238–39; upward mobility, 203, 214–19, 223, 245, 261–63, 376n78; use of term, 371n10 (Part III)
- self-ownership, right of, 175–76, 177, 178–79
- Seminoles, 56, 70, 71
- Seneca Falls Convention, 196–97
- settler colonialism, 72–73, 124–26, 249–51. See also Native American land expropriation
- Seward, William H., 209, 229, 373n32
- Shays' Rebellion, 343n8
- Shklar, Judith, 111, 291, 394n41
- Sidney, Algernon, 157
- Simpson, Stephen, 153
- slaveholders: "breeding" of slaves by, 182, 364n137; as businessmen, 181–83, 197, 364n137; egalitarianism and, 329n102; independent proprietor myth and, 97;

- Jackson as, 96–97, 119; legal authority of, 176; power of, 184, 186; rights of, 197; sins of, 173; sympathy expressed by, 190. See also Southern planters
- slavery: agricultural labor, 3, 26, 74, 127, 191; American hypocrisy and, 162–63; complicity of white northerners in, 181, 183, 184–85, 190–93, 194, 368–69n192; democracy and, 184–85, 186–87, 191–92, 194, 366n151, 155; Democratic views of, 128–29, 197, 245; end of, 245; justifications of, 110, 273–74; labor theory of property and, 126–27; as metaphor, 16, 74–75, 126–27, 128, 129; Missouri Compromise, 21, 191, 373n30; moral arguments against, 172–73, 188–92; profit motive in, 181–84, 197, 364n137; property rights and, 197; rebellions, 179; religious instruction of slaves, 176, 362n99; rights-based critique of, 110, 128–29, 172–73, 174–77; structural roots of, 192–93, 368–69n192; violence and torture in, 74, 127, 128, 129, 188–89, 190; wage labor compared to, 126, 128, 129, 244, 248, 281. See also abolitionists
- small proprietors: benefits of market economy to, 64; Cherokee, 73; economic shocks and, 58; elites and, 54, 58, 109; independence of, 18, 26, 34, 47, 51, 55, 71, 246, 282; Jackson on, 92; as producers, 112, 120; as self-made men, 18. See also independent proprietor myth
- Smith, Adam: on capital and wages, 373n35; on human motivation, 134–35; on market economy, 43, 121; on natural laws, 136, 142; view of society, 293; Wealth of Nations, 111, 309n75
- Smith, Rogers, 297nn5, 18, 300n40
- social and economic mobility: downward, 27, 203, 215, 302n57; factors in, 27; government roles in promoting, 277; of immigrants, 20–21; individual responsibility for, 203–4; land ownership and, 18; rates of, 270, 278, 375n64; role of education in, 228–29; Tocqueville on, 236–37; upward, 203, 214–19, 223, 245, 261–63, 302n55, 376n78; for white men, 262, 277. See also meritocracy; self-made man myth
- social classes. See class hierarchy; elites; middle class; poverty; working class
- Social Darwinism, 247, 254, 255–56, 265
- social gospel, 8, 257, 387n60
- social individualism, 289–90, 291, 293, 294, 395–96n9
- socialism: in Europe, 121, 138, 265, 303n70; Marxist utopianism, 276, 393n22
- social reformers, 8, 221, 222, 249, 254, 366–67n167. See also abolitionists; Progressive movement; temperance movement
- society: conservative view of, 207–9; harmonious, 6, 133–38, 210–14, 221, 227, 263–64, 275, 289–90; hierarchical structure of, 137, 289; liberal views of, 138, 293, 396n20; natural, 133–38, 140, 143, 197–98, 344n17; Whig view of, 207–8, 210–18, 372n26. See also utopianism
- Southern Literary Messenger*, 121–22, 226–27
- Southern planters: cotton production, 3, 26, 74, 127, 191; as elites, 128, 129; as patricians, 49–50; political power of, 93, 184; in post-Civil War period, 247, 249; producers' rights of, 123; wealth of, 127. See also slaveholders
- Stanley, Amy Dru, 362n102, 388n67
- Stanton, Elizabeth Cady, 78, 79, 253, 386n45
- state constitutions: conventions, 49, 73, 76–79; of Ohio, 105; Protestant virtues invoked in, 66; rights in, 105, 106, 269; of Virginia, 46, 49
- states' rights, 87, 138, 244
- St. John de Crevecoeur, J. Hector, 46–47, 112–13, 127
- stockjobbers, 46, 48, 50, 308n68, 337n61
- suffrage. See voting rights
- Sumner, William Graham, 247, 255, 256, 387n54
- Supreme Court, U.S., 209, 254, 283; 373n33
- Sutton, William R., 121

- tariffs: British Corn Laws, 145; criticism of, 18, 61, 117, 139, 145, 147, 149, 338–39n91; effects of, 61, 148; protective, 61, 109, 117, 121–22, 139, 147, 148, 156, 314n37; revenues from, 314n37; supporters of, 204, 224–26, 227, 256; as theft, 117, 121–22
- Taylor, John: on aristocracy, 324n27; on banking and paper currency, 157, 311n105; on concentrated wealth, 139–40; on elites, 51; on farmers, 48, 81, 97; influence on Jacksonian Democrats, 322n2; on political power, 86, 93; on producers' rights, 109; on tariffs, 117; Tyranny Unmasked, 117, 139–40; on virtue, 48, 50, 91
- temperance movement, 8, 173, 221
- Thompson, E. P., 300n41
- Thoreau, Henry David: "Civil Disobedience," 183; on slavery, 183; Walden, 89–90, 239, 326n59
- Tocqueville, Alexis de: on American mobility, 236–37, 279; on individualism, 20, 138, 395–96n9; on mores, 187; on self-interest in America, 317n76; on social class in Europe, 382n174
- trade. See free trade policies; tariffs
- tradition: conservatism and, 237–38; definition of, 396n11
- Transcendentalists, 89–90, 238, 239
- Trenchard, John, 39, 156–57. See also Country ideology
- Trump, Donald J., 268, 273
- Truth, Sojourner, 252
- Turner, Jack, 274, 390n107
- Turner, Nat, 168
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 283
- utopianism: democracy and, 95–96, 104; free market and, 6, 131–32, 147–51, 255, 275–77; independent proprietor myth and, 95–96, 104; individualism and, 6, 271, 275–79; key sources of, 278–79; in liberalism, 197–98; Marxist, 276, 393n22; political myths and, 6, 104, 271; self-made man myth and, 229–33, 260–64; Whigs and, 204, 228, 229–33. See also natural economy
- Van Buren, Martin: economic policies of, 151–52, 222; on factions and parties, 101, 331nn130–31; party leadership by, 98, 99; Paulding and, 127; presidency of, 222, 259
- Vattel, Emer de, 124
- Vickers, Daniel, 40, 71
- Virginia, state constitution of, 46, 49
- virtues: Franklin on, 66–67; frugality, 43, 48, 66–68, 80, 111, 132, 156, 158–59, 212, 219, 235, 262; honesty, 66–67, 96, 157, 220, 262–63, 305–6n27; industry, 48–49, 66–68, 74, 80, 83–84, 111, 132, 157–59, 212, 219, 235, 262–63; market economy and, 154–59; moderation, 43, 49, 66, 262; of producers, 68; republicanism and, 66–68; self-discipline, 235; self-interest and, 66–67, 157–58; of self-made men, 219, 235, 262; temperance, 66, 156, 219, 221; whiteness and, 74; of women, 390n95. See also civic virtue
- voting rights: of African Americans, 73, 179, 187, 245, 251, 253; Democrats' defense of, 106; expansion for white men, 3, 56–57, 73, 76, 95; Fifteenth Amendment and, 194, 244, 251; of independent men, 39–40, 42; property qualification for, 3, 40, 56–57, 106; of women, 79, 177, 196–97, 252, 253–54. See also elections
- wage labor: compared to slavery, 126, 128, 129, 244, 248, 281; freedom and, 35–36, 55, 60–61, 63, 183–84, 224; increase in, 60–61, 224, 247, 257; inequality and, 60–61, 63, 84, 151–52, 244, 246, 248; insecurity of, 281; Republican view of, 247; Whig view of, 224, 365n149
- wages: of artisans, 60, 121; economic power and, 147; in Europe, 225; factors in levels of, 25, 27, 152, 378n110; of industrial workers, 84, 224, 225; paid in banknotes, 337n65;

- in United States, 25, 27; and value of labor, 120–22; of women, 130, 131
- Walker, David, 194
- Walker, Robert, 62, 144–45, 150
- Ward, John William, 276
- War of 1812, 56, 61
- Washington, George, 164, 356n24
- Washington Globe*, 60, 61, 62–63, 83–84, 314n30
- Wayland, Francis, 140–41, 376n72
- wealth: concentration of, 87, 243, 254; racial inequality in, 392n13. See also elites
- Weber, Max, 112
- Webster, Daniel, 178, 211, 215, 374n51
- Webster, Noah, 65
- Weiss, Richard, 263
- Weld, Theodore, 171–72, 175, 185
- Welter, Rush, 105, 373n28
- Western lands: closing of frontier, 243, 258; federal policies on, 61, 71, 258; Louisiana Purchase, 46, 343n6; low prices of, 18, 25, 62–63, 388n66; white settlement of, 25–27, 70, 71–72, 90, 103, 117, 199–200, 249–50, 302n55. See also land; Native American land expropriation
- Western Review*, 61, 121, 150
- Whig Party: Christian beliefs in, 221, 229, 230–34; on class harmony, 210–14, 221, 227, 277; conservatism of, 203–4, 205–10, 233–34, 237; decline of, 209, 245; on democracy, 86; differences from Democrats, 99–100, 116, 203, 205–7, 210, 335n43, 336n52; on economic excesses, 378n105; economic policies of, 63–64, 132, 204–5, 222–23, 224–26, 227–28, 237, 263; factions in, 205; formation of, 57; on government roles, 210, 277; on immigration, 317n82; independent proprietor myth and, 99–100, 204–5, 216–17; individualism and, 200–201, 204, 210, 214–22, 234–36; interest in order, 203, 208, 213, 227, 229; leaders of, 97; on market economy, 142–43, 203–4, 365n149; moral reform objectives of, 204, 221, 222, 366–67n167; nationalism of, 298n12; on Native Americans, 125; on natural rights and social compact, 116, 208–9, 210, 373n28; optimism of, 229; presidential election (1836) and, 99; on producers’ rights, 120; progressive views in, 233; on rights, 208–9, 210; self-made man myth and, 198, 200–201, 203–4, 210, 212, 215–22, 223–24, 234–36; slavery opponents and supporters in, 209, 221, 245; social reformers in, 221, 222; supporters of, 205; on value of labor, 113
- White, Horace, 255, 388n67
- white male supremacy. See white supremacy
- white men: egalitarianism for, 54, 79–80, 123, 128, 197, 260, 280, 389n83; free labor ideal and, 246; grievances of, 197, 273–74; independence of, 47, 54, 68–69, 70–71, 74, 103–4, 305–6n27; meritocracy for, 27, 123, 277; privileges of, 5–6, 18, 25–26, 103–4, 197, 244; producers’ rights of, 110, 123–31; rights of, 18, 165, 197, 396n17; self-made man myth and, 22, 199, 262, 264–67; social and economic mobility of, 262, 277; voting rights of, 3, 56–57, 73, 76, 95. See also men; patriarchy
- whiteness, 5, 9, 22, 73–74, 272, 273
- whites: denial of racial injustice by, 274; immigrants, 22–23, 71, 72, 73–74, 317n82; poor, 74, 243, 273; working-class, 243. See also abolitionists; racial hierarchy
- “white slavery,” 128, 129, 247
- white supremacy: among Democrats, 4–5, 21–22, 55–56, 68–75, 123–31, 197; among immigrants, 22–23; critics of, 6, 185–95, 244, 266–67; in Declaration of Independence, 165; denial of existence of, 273–74; economic benefits of, 25–26; egalitarianism and, 260, 389n83; exclusion of other groups, 22, 47, 165; individualism and, 22; in late nineteenth century, 245, 264–65; political consequences of, 272–74; political myths and, 103–4, 391n7; populism and, 4–5, 259, 260; rights-based critique of, 107, 110. See also racial discrimination; racial hierarchy; racial injustice; settler colonialism

- Whitman, Walt, 137, 239, 332n11
- Wiebe, Robert H., 199, 301n51
- Wigger, John H., 235
- Wilentz, Sean, 314n33, 333n21
- Wilkerson, Isabel, 367n174
- Williams, Roger, 167, 173, 361n82
- Wilson, Major L., 298n14, 373n30
- Winslow, Hubbard, 215, 375n57
- Witherspoon, John, 141, 347n54
- women: abolitionists, 193; Black, 252; dependent status of, 39, 75–79, 252, 272–73; individualism of, 77; labor of, 129–31, 197; married, 75–79, 129–30, 254, 272, 390n95; moral purity of, 78, 321n135; political roles of, 78, 321n132; property rights of, 75, 76–77, 79, 130, 254, 321n130; rights of, 21, 75–77, 177, 196–97, 239, 251, 252, 272; self-made man myth and, 238–39; slaves, 182, 362n101, 365n140; suffragists, 79, 252, 253, 386n45; virtues of, 390n95; voting rights of, 79, 177, 196–97, 252, 253–54; wages of, 130, 131. See also feminists; gender
- Wood, Gordon, 41, 67–68, 94
- work and workers. See labor; laborers; producers' rights
- working class, 213–14, 243, 245. See also laborers
- Wright, Elizur, 163, 178, 365n143
- Wright, Frances, 79
- Wright, Silas, 60
- Yarbrough, Jean M., 93
- yeomen. See farmers